

Chief Executive Officer
UK inflammatory Bowel Disease Registry

The UK IBD Registry is expanding from a project exclusively sponsored by the British Society of Gastroenterology (BSG) to a new legal entity founded by the BSG, Crohn's and Colitis UK and the Royal College of Physicians (RCP).

Inflammatory Bowel Disease (IBD) encompasses the diseases of ulcerative colitis and Crohn's disease, as well as rarer forms of the disease. The IBD Registry provides the first ever UK-wide repository of anonymised IBD adult and paediatric patient data for prospective audit and research purposes. For the 300,000 people in the UK known to have IBD, it aims to:

- Drive continuous improvement in patient care and access to care in the UK;
- Inform commissioning and service design;
- Improve understanding of long term outcomes;
- Provide local and national data to better define the pattern of IBD disease;
- Support IBD research.

The Registry has demonstrated significant success to date with over 30,000 patients being entered into the database since its inception in 2012. The Board is now seeking an exceptional CEO to build on this success and drive the direction of the new company.

The Role:

- To head the operational team currently based near the RCP in London;
- To have responsibility for financial and executive direction of the registry;
- With the Medical Director and the Board, set the strategic direction of the new enterprise.

The Candidate:

Our ideal candidate will have:

- A track record of building business stabilisation and growth plans;
- Experience of partnership working and producing tangible outcomes through influence and relationship management.
- Experience of strategy development and planning with an ability to demonstrate strategic thinking against a broad range of organisational activities.
